

Flit 'n' More

Spring 2021

The parish newsletter for Flitton, Greenfield and Wardhedges

With the arrival of the Spring season, we have the opportunity to take a cue from Nature. We can emerge from our Winter hibernation; of eating thick, slow-cooker casseroles while hungrily guzzling through box sets on the sofa. Put away the warm Winter blankets and look forward to the year ahead.

Spring is the season of new beginnings. This is particularly relevant for this magazine. I have the unenviable task of taking over from the wonderful Angela Ayres as Editor. I am also working with new software (Adobe InDesign, if anyone has any pointers?!?) Things will look and feel a bit different, so I ask you to bear with me. If you would like to submit copy or make suggestions for future editions, please email me.

This edition includes the Easter period, so there are lots of Church services and activities to explore. I particularly recommend Messy Church. This is held once a month, on a Sunday at 4pm, in either Flitton, Silsoe or Pulloxhill. It is a wonderful way to introduce families of all ages to faith. There are crafts, puppets, songs and we all sit down to tea together. The dates are on the Services page, there is no charge and you will be made very welcome.

Flitton Church News

The Benefice of Silsoe, Flitton and Pulloxhill

Living our faith, Loving our communities

From our vicars, Louise and Simon Moore...

Dear Friends

Trying to work out when Easter falls is a mystery that has caused constant bewilderment to us all. Not least for parents and teachers as they try to fit terms and diaries around the fact that Easter can fall between March 22nd and April 25th. It is the first Sunday, after the first full moon, after the Northern Hemisphere Spring Equinox (which is set as March 21st). If you thought that was complicated look up 'Date of Easter' on Wikipedia (you have been warned!). So, we have 35 days to play with and that is where the problem lies.

If we can be sure when Easter falls but never be able to work out quite why, then there is a symmetry with the fact that for many we celebrate it with a big family meal and Easter eggs but increasingly wonder what it's all about. This is backed up by a YouGov survey in 2020 that found only just over half the UK celebrated Easter in some way and a third of these did not give any importance to it, despite celebrating it. We still managed to eat nearly ninety million Easter eggs last year!

I think the church has presumed that people understand Easter and failed to clearly communicate its message. We get Christmas, the baby in a manger, the gift of God with us and the message told in carols each year. But Easter, that is more complicated. There's not sufficient space to delve deeper now, suffice to say we may struggle for a number of reasons with it. It is unusual to understand why someone says he loves us so much he would die for us, even stranger when he comes back from the dead. Coupled with this if it did happen, we would need to do something about it. The empty tomb, asks the question of us all, what do we believe?

With Love and Prayers this Easter

Simon and Louise

SLEEP OUT

I'm taking part in
The Great Tommy Sleep Out for RBLI

The Great Tommy Sleep Out is a fundraising challenge designed to support the estimated 6000 veterans that are experiencing homelessness in the UK right now. One family from the village is swapping their beds for a sleeping bag to raise vital funds and awareness for homeless veterans.

With every penny raised, Royal British Legion Industries can provide safe, warm housing and ensure everyone has a fair opportunity to gain employment, regardless of health conditions or disability.

From your Parish Council...

Keep up to date with what's going on in Flitton, Greenfield and Wardhedges

I hope that you all had a fantastic Christmas and New Year and are looking forward to a great 2024. The year started badly for many around the country due to flooding following some extreme weather. Locally there was some flooding both of property and countryside. Our thoughts are with those affected. Central Beds Council are compiling a list of affected areas and details can be registered with them. The parish council are of course happy to pass these on to CBC if you contact one of our Councillors. This information will help direct funds to where they are most needed. Following the floods we now find we once again have very cold weather, and whilst we might be spared the heavy snowfalls seen in other places, nevertheless we should be mindful that some people locally might need help.

Spring is around the corner and soon the weather will improve and bulbs will be flowering. The Parish Council has continued to meet regularly and all our main meetings are preceded by a public forum where there is an opportunity for residents to bring anything to the attention of the committee. These views are then debated by the Council and appropriate action taken. If you have any concerns about things happening in the area, you are encouraged to attend one of these. The Parish Council reviews all planning applications in the area and advises CBC of our views. We also manage the playing field where we are about to replace some of the exercise equipment which is beyond repair. We have responsibility to maintain the verges and the village gates. We hope to continue and expand the wildflower areas on selected verges. We also maintain the Cemetery, allotments and other facilities, but our main concern is to represent the views of our Parishioners.

The annual budget and the precept for 2023-2024 has been finalised. We have agreed to maintain the local precept at the same rate as last year with no increase. Nevertheless, CBC will probably have to increase the Council Tax to maintain provision of those services it is responsible for. We continue to work with CBC and the police to try to do more to alleviate traffic issues within the parish and this led to traffic surveys in Flitton, Greenfield and Wardhedges. The Parish Council has enabled the installation of speed indicators on Sand Road in Flitton and High Street (near Moat Farm Close) in Greenfield. We hope these will provide a visible deterrent to those relatively few drivers that speed through our villages. Further measures are under consideration, dependent on suitable funding. In addition, the Speedwatch group have been active in a number of locations. This group is always looking for additional volunteers.

Back for another year in the Spring, will be the Great British Spring Clean, a country wide initiative that gets communities together to help collect litter within the Parish.

This is usually well supported by individuals and families. It is an opportunity to work for a morning as a team collecting rubbish from the verges and roadside ditches during the time before the undergrowth covers them. Once we have a date it will be communicated via the Parish Website at flittonandgreenfieldparishcouncil.gov.uk, the Parish Council notice boards and the community Facebook page. Our website also contains details about forthcoming events and general information about the Parish Council.

Chairman of the Parish Council

The Friends of Flitton and Greenfield Church

Our most recent fund-raising event was the Christmas Market held on the 26th of November 2023. It was the second time we have held this family event and once more it was a great success raising nearly £900. Thanks go to everyone who came along to support us, including Santa who spent the day in the magical grotto Jo Holt put together and all the people who manned the stalls. A special thanks goes to Annie and Paco of Paco's Property and Garden Services who provided all the burgers and sausages.

St John the Baptist Church is a medieval church and the upkeep of such an old, historic building is a challenge at times. The Friends of Flitton and Greenfield Church are a group of people who help with raising funds for the maintenance and repair of the building. Some members are regular church goers; some just love the history and beauty of the building and want to help raise funds for its maintenance. We are always looking for new members to join our group. We hold about 4 events a year. If you think you might be interested to join the committee or offer any other help, our AGM is being held on Tuesday 9th April at 6.45pm in the Church so do come along or contact Pamela Buckley on 860306 for more information.

Centenary Wood - Your Local Wood (just off Sand Road)

Winter update

Winter can be a busy season for woodlands and at Centenary Wood we have been using the season for lots of traditional woodland management.

We have been hedge laying on the Maple Close side of the wood. This is a traditional practice where the tree stems are partly cut through and bent over to form a living fence. The stems continue to grow and shoot from the cut stem, making a nice thick hedge which provides food and shelter for birds and invertebrates (see photos). We have been laying this hedge over the last 3 years and this winter will see its completion as the final section at the bottom of the hill is finished. In the autumn the Centenary Wood Action Group (CWAG) volunteers also planted wildflower plugs along the base of the hedge, which we hope will spread out into the adjacent grassland in future years.

Work in the coppice area has been continued by Wassledine, local woodland workers. Coppicing is another traditional method of woodland management that involves periodically cutting trees down to ground level in a rotation every 4-7 years. This creates a 'coppice stool' from which many new shoots grow the following spring. The process increases the lifespan of the tree, can be repeated indefinitely and ensures a regular supply of poles. The long hazel poles harvested at Centenary Wood are made into a variety of garden products, fencing and some were used for stakes and binders for the hedge laying within the wood.

Coppicing and hedge laying are both brilliant ways of increasing biodiversity in woodlands. Diversifying the age and structure of the wood increases light levels to areas of the woodland floor. This allows flowering plants and grasses to flourish, providing habitats and food sources for many invertebrates, birds and small mammals.

The CWAG volunteers have been busy throughout the year with hedge planting, wildflower and bulb planting, as well as clearing paths, litter removal and putting up bird boxes. The aim is to make the wood even more enjoyable for all to visit.

If you live locally and enjoy using Centenary Wood, why not join us for our occasional tasks - contact Julia Burkett - 07709 763889

Centenary Wood is owned and managed by Central Bedfordshire Council with help and support from CWAG and Wassledine.

Rotary Club of Barton le Clay:

Rotary's International Vision Statement is:

TOGETHER we see a world where PEOPLE unite and take action to CREATE lasting CHANGE across the globe, in our communities and in ourselves.

Rotary began life in Chicago, America in 1905, as a gentlemen's networking club. From the very beginning the weekly friendship meal was important as a way of getting to know one another and that remains the case today. The Barton Club was formed in 1987 and meet at The Jolly Coopers in Wardhedges on Tuesday evenings at 7:15 for 7:45pm. Visitors are always welcome.

December is always a busy month for the club starting with the pre-Christmas celebration at the Mount Pleasant Golf Club in Lower Stondon. This event attracted 50 members, spouses and friends. The following couple of weeks were then taken up with escorting Santa's sleigh around the streets of Barton. This occupies 5 evenings and the response in 2023 was splendid with our highest ever collection of £3,259. This collection is important to our Club as it is our main regular fund raiser.

The Club programme for February will be:

6 February 2024	Business meeting (members only)
13 February 2024	Myles Greenhalgh – Desert Island Discs
20 February 2024	Stephanie Horne – The British chalk stream
27 February 2024	Helen Hope - Marathon Running

Silsoe Drama Club presents...

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

By Oscar Wilde

Friday 26 and Saturday 27 April
at Silsoe Village Hall

It's the story of two bachelors, John 'Jack' Worthing and Algernon 'Algy' Moncrieff, who each invent an imaginary character named Ernest to escape their tiresome lives. They attempt to win the hearts of two women who, conveniently, claim to only love men called Ernest. The pair struggle to keep up with their own stories and become tangled in a tale of deception, disguise and misadventure. The elaborate plot ridicules Victorian sensibilities with some of the best loved, and indeed bizarre, characters to be found on the modern stage.

King Offa by local historian Margaret Butt

Many people know about Offa's dyke, but very little else about this Saxon king who ruled Mercia (which included Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire) for 39 years from 757 – 796AD. This was a long time, when the average life span at the time would have been about 30 years. He did this by murdering his rivals and constantly waging war against the other Saxon kingdoms, such as Kent, Wessex and Northumbria.

Offa was a Christian. In 793AD, whilst visiting Bath, he had a vision of an angel showing him where the 'lost' tomb of St Alban (martyred in 305AD) was. Offa travelled to Watling Street and a guiding light showed him the location of the tomb. A Church was supposedly built on the spot, although its remains have never been found. Although the Abbey and Cathedral were built later, the monks of St Albans were pro Offa, writing stories about him. Once such chronicler was the 13th century monk Matthew Paris who wrote about Offa's death.

Offa died in Offley, Hertfordshire and his body was taken North. This may have been to bury him at Tamworth or Repton, the traditional burial places of Mercian kings. Offa spent many Christmases at Tamworth and it may have been his favourite town. But Offa did not make it. He was buried in Bedford, in a chapel by the river Great Ouse. No explanation of this was given. Was he intended to be buried there, or was it necessary due to attacks from the other Saxon kings who had heard of his death?

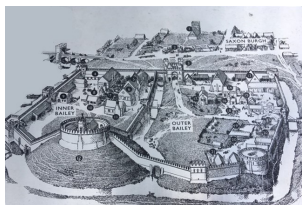

In 794AD, Offa had ordered the beheading of Ethelbert, king of the East Angles. This was supposedly because Ethelbert was in love with Offa's daughter and Offa didn't approve. The St Albans monks, however, wrote that it was Offa's wife, Queen Cynethryth who ordered the execution. She was the patron of Bedford, so may have wanted him to be buried there. Also, there were stories that Bedford held some relics of King Ethelbert. Maybe the burial was something to do with that, and Offa was asking for forgiveness?

Flitton Potato Race

Watch social media for the date of this year's race
but we can't do it without your support!

Can you spare an hour or so on race day?

Every year the Potato Race gets bigger and better and we rely on a small army of volunteers to facilitate everything from registrations to road closures, refreshments to raffle ticket sales.

Have you any spare time beforehand?

We need your help to:

- Distribute flyers
- Put up banners, roadsigns and posters
- Publicise the events
- Manage the Tatties in a Bucket competition
- Liaise with interest groups eg schools, clubs
- Resource prizes and other donations.

Promote your business or organisation with us

The race relies on support and sponsorship. We offer different advertising opportunities to reach a local audience both before and on race day, such as displaying banners, adverts in our programme and promotion through social media.

For more information on any of the above, please email

FLITTON & GREENFIELD GOOD NEIGHBOURS

Covering Flitton, Greenfield, Pulloxhill & Wardhedges

We are a group of local volunteers who give our time to help others in our local area. The only charges we make are for lifts, although we do accept voluntary donations to our scheme for other assistance in order to help us cover our running costs.

Our most popular service is providing transport, mainly to medical appointments in Ampthill, Flitwick and Barton or local hospitals. We also provide befriending, light DIY, help with filling in forms and other one-off tasks such as short-term dog walking or assistance with meals or cleaning whilst you are ill. We also help to do litter picking at the Greenfield Village Hall play area and look after the telephone box library at Flitton Church for the Parish Council.

Should you need any assistance, please don't hesitate to contact our friendly team on the number below and we will do our very best to help you.
